HAFNIA LIMITED: Update relating to dividend for the third quarter 2026

TICKER:
NYSE: "HAFN"
OSLO: "HAFNI"

Singapore, 25 November 2026

Reference is made to the release by Hafnia Limited ("Hafnia" or the "Company", OSE ticker code: "HAFNI", NYSE ticker code: "HAFN") on 18 November 2026 announcing the Company's third quarter 2026 results and intention to pay a special interim dividend (the "Special Dividend"). As stated in that announcement, our preference is to pay the Special Dividend by distributing all 20,356,061 Class A shares of TORM plc held by Hafnia to its shareholders (a "Share Distribution"). However, as also stated, the completion of a Share Distribution requires cooperation and coordination with third parties beyond our control.

We continue to advance discussions with the necessary parties and address the technical details required to process and complete a Share Distribution. As a result of the number of jurisdictions involved, the complexity of the required settlement mechanics and the Thanksgiving Holiday in the United States, the Company has decided to extend from 25 November 2026 to no later than 9 December 2026 the date by which it expects to announce the dividend record date and whether it will declare the Special Dividend by way of a Share Distribution or apply its existing cash dividend policy.

This information is subject to the disclosure requirements pursuant to Section 5-12 of the Norwegian Securities Trading Act.
