Constellation First Day of Trading on Euronext Oslo Børs

Luxembourg, 26 May 2026 - Constellation Oil Services Holding S.A. (“Constellation” or the “Company”) (ticker: COSH; ISIN: NO0013597419) announces that its depositary receipts (the “Securities”) began trading today on Euronext Oslo Børs, the main regulated market in Norway, following a successful transfer from Euronext Growth Oslo, as previously announced on 21 May 2026. This uplisting represents a significant milestone in the Company’s journey as a publicly traded company and reinforces its commitment to the highest standards of corporate governance, transparency and shareholder value creation.

Rodrigo Ribeiro, the Chief Executive Officer of Constellation said: “When we listed on Euronext Growth Oslo in March 2025, we committed to increasing visibility, deepening investor engagement and demonstrating the strength and resilience of our business. Fourteen months later, we are delivering on those commitments. Brazil’s offshore sector is experiencing a prolonged growth cycle, and Constellation is well positioned through its long-term contracts, operational track record and experienced team that has successfully navigated every market cycle in our industry. We have built a resilient and sustainable business, focused on delivering consistent growth and solid returns to shareholders, and we remain confident in our ability to continue executing on our strategy.”

Constellation has chosen Norway as its Home Member State pursuant to Directive 2004/109/EC (Transparency Directive).

Transaction Advisors: Clarksons Securities AS and DNB Carnegie, a part of DNB Bank ASA, have acted as financial advisors to the Company. Advokatfirmaet Thommessen AS has acted as legal counsel to the Company in connection with the listing on Euronext Oslo Børs.
