Jonas Ström to step down as CEO of ABG Sundal Collier

ABG Sundal Collier ("ABGSC") today announced that CEO Jonas Ström has decided to step down as CEO. Following discussions between Jonas Ström and the Board of Directors regarding the timing of his departure, he will step down effective September 1, 2026. Following the transition, Jonas will continue with the firm as Senior Partner.

"Under Jonas' leadership, ABGSC has more than doubled its revenues while successfully broadening its operations across geographies and product areas, strengthening the firm's market position and creating a more diversified business. On behalf of the Board, I would like to thank Jonas for his outstanding leadership, strategic vision and dedication over the past seven years. We are grateful for his significant contributions to the firm's development and respect his decision to step down", says Knut Brundtland, Chairman of ABGSC.

"After an extraordinary journey with ABGSC, I believe this is the right time to hand over the leadership," says Jonas Ström. "I am immensely proud of what we have achieved together, from expanding into new business areas to strengthening our position across our markets. None of this would have been possible without the dedication of our employees and partners and the trust of our clients and shareholders. I am confident that the company is well positioned for continued success and I remain fully committed to supporting a smooth transition."

The Board has initiated a thorough succession process and is confident that ABGSC's strong management team and strategic direction provide a solid foundation for the company's continued development. An announcement regarding the appointment of a new CEO will be made in due course.
