Cloudberry Clean Energy ASA | New credit facility signed

Oslo, Norway, 26 August 2026: Reference is made to the stock exchange announcement from Cloudberry Clean Energy ASA ("Cloudberry" or the "Company") on 25 June 2026 regarding credit approvals to increase its existing debt facility by NOK 1,000 million to a total of NOK 3,200 million, with an option to increase the facility by an additional NOK 750 million (the "Credit Agreement").

The Company is pleased to announce that the Credit Agreement has now been signed and executed with the bank syndicate consisting of SpareBank 1 Sør-Norge, SpareBank 1 Nord-Norge and SpareBank 1 Østlandet.

The increased facility provides Cloudberry with enhanced financial flexibility at an improved margin well below 2%, and with an extended tenor of 3+1+1 years. The covenant structure is covenant light, with no requirement to hedge any power sales. Cloudberry has further expanded the scope of the facility to include Finland, BESS and solar.

For more information about the Credit Agreement and the rationale behind it, please see the stock exchange announcement published by the Company on 25 June 2026.
