5th PLANET GAMES INVESTOR UPDATE (OAX: 5PG):

Skybound Entertainment Expands Invincible VS with Second Major Content Update; 'Season 2' Releasing to Players October 13

Key Highlights:

- Skybound will release Season 2 content for Invincible VS on October 13, featuring a new playable character and additional enhancements targeting existing and new players.
- New Seasons aim to support player retention, deepen the fan experience, and extend the commercial life of Invincible VS.
- Fan favorite Invincible universe character Angstrom Levy joins the game with Season 2 and was fully revealed by Skybound this week in a new gameplay trailer.
- Alongside new content, Skybound continues to invest in competitive events and community programming to support player engagement and reactivation.

5th Planet Games, co-financier and co-distributor of Skybound Entertainment's fighting game Invincible VS, today updates shareholders on the game's next major content release. Season 2 will launch on October 13 and introduce a highly anticipated playable character from the award-winning Invincible universe, Angstrom Levy.

Skybound revealed Angstrom Levy in a new trailer this week and shared further Season 2 details across social media including what players can expect from the update. Angstrom Levy is the third downloadable (DLC) character included in the Invincible VS Year 1 Character Pass and the twenty-first playable character overall. Ahead of his October 13 release, fans can play as Angstrom at Evo France, held October 9–11 in Nice, France and considered Europe's largest fighting game tournament.

The Invincible VS Year 1 Character Pass includes four post-launch DLC characters. The pass is included with the physical Invincible VS Collector's Edition, co-distributed by 5th Planet Games. Players without the Year 1 Pass can also purchase each DLC character separately. This model adds value for existing players and encourages repeat sales, while creating entry points for new players.

Mark Stanger, CEO of 5th Planet Games, commented: "For both digital and physical games, launch is only the beginning. A strong pipeline of downloadable content can extend a game's commercial potential for months beyond release by adding depth for players, giving the community new reasons to return, and renewing visibility across digital storefronts and retail channels. Each new character addition and update from Skybound creates another opportunity to re-engage Invincible fans, boost sales and drive long-term player engagement."

In addition to new in-game content, Skybound continues to support Invincible VS through competitive events, community engagement and targeted promotions designed to retain and reactivate existing players while attracting new ones. In recent weeks, Skybound has secured the game's participation at dozens of competitive fighting-game events. Season 3 content is planned for release this winter. Invincible VS is also currently available at a 40% discount as part of Sony's PlayStation Autumn Adventure Sale, aiming to drive new sales of the game ahead of the Season 2 launch.

Co-financed by 5th Planet Games and developed and published by Skybound Entertainment, Invincible VS was released worldwide on April 30, 2026, for Xbox Series X|S, PlayStation 5, and PC. Physical console editions are co-distributed by 5th Planet Games through key European retailers and comic book shops, including the Nordic region under its partnership with Nordisk Interactive A/S, Eastern Europe in partnership with Glomerk SA, and the Benelux region in association with BIGBEN Interactive Belgium S.A.

Invincible VS Overview

Invincible VS features beloved characters, iconic locations, and devastating combos in a tournament-caliber 3v3 tag-team fighting experience. The game is based on Skybound Entertainment's acclaimed comic series by Robert Kirkman, Cory Walker and Ryan Ottley, which has sold more than 5 million books since its debut in 2003. Skybound's Invincible animated series, which launched in 2021 on Prime Video, has been the #1 series on the platform at multiple points across its first four seasons. Season 4 debuted in March to a third consecutive 100% score on Rotten Tomatoes and became the most-watched season of the series to date. The critically acclaimed series streams in more than 240 countries and territories. Season 5 is currently in production for release next year, with an early renewal for Season 6 also recently confirmed.
