

Announcement no. 42/2026
Copenhagen, October 09, 2026

5th Planet Games updates its financial outlook for 2026 following revised launch timing for new game

COPENHAGEN October 9, 2026: 5th Planet Games A/S (OAX: 5PG) announces that it is updating guidance for the current year following the postponement of the release of the new video game that had been scheduled for H2 2026.

The previous guidance included a contribution from the game's release. With the launch now scheduled for H1 2027, the anticipated contribution from the release will move into the next financial year.

Total net revenue	14m to 17m (previous guidance was DKK 28m to 32m)
EBITDA	5m to 7m (previous guidance was DKK 20m to 23m)

Further details concerning the release of the game will be released in due course.

ABOUT 5th PLANET GAMES

5th Planet Games is a Copenhagen-based video games publisher and financier with activities across global gaming platforms. Through its partnership with Skybound Entertainment, the company participates in games based on established entertainment franchises, including The Walking Dead and Invincible.