Huddlestock Fintech AS (“Huddlestock”) has signed a Letter of Intent (LOI) with Firi, the largest crypto exchange in the Nordic, for a tied-agent solution to leverage Huddlestocks regulatory infrastructure.

Huddlestock Fintech AS (“Huddlestock”) has signed a Letter of Intent (LOI) with Firi, the largest crypto exchange in the Nordic, for a tied-agent solution to leverage Huddlestocks regulatory infrastructure.

“We have always been on each others radars so it is timely that we finally take the relationship to the next level.” says Ramtin Matin Interim CEO of Huddlestock.

The collaboration remains subject to further commercial, operational and regulatory assessment and is intended to form the basis for a long-term framework agreement between Huddlestock and Firi. Additional details regarding the use case and potential commercial structure will be disclosed during the next week.

Firi is the largest crypto exchange in the Nordics with approx. 430.000 retail customers with operations in both Norway, Sweden and Denmark.

About Huddlestock Fintech AS
Huddlestock is a European Investment-as-a-Service provider enabling financial institutions and digital platforms to launch and scale investment services efficiently and in full regulatory compliance. Through its BaFin-regulated entity, Huddlestock GmbH, the company provides access to a comprehensive liability umbrella and European passporting framework, allowing partners to offer regulated investment services without requiring their own financial license. Combining regulatory infrastructure with a modular, partner-based ecosystem, Huddlestock enables clients to build tailored investment solutions while significantly reducing time-to-market and operational complexity. Huddlestock Group also includes Visigon, a Nordic based consulting company with deep expertise in capital markets and treasury technology.
