5th PLANET GAMES SHAREHOLDER UPDATE (OAX: 5PG):

Skybound Entertainment's Invincible VS Nominated as "Best Fighting Game" in The Game Awards, as Skybound Releases New Omni Edition in Time for the Holidays

Key Highlights:

- Invincible VS has been nominated for consideration as the "Best Fighting Game" of 2026 in the prominent and globally recognized The Game Awards, a significant honor for Skybound.
- The recently released Invincible VS Omni Edition has delivered a boost in sales across digital storefronts, with the award nomination also delivering front page placement on Steam.
- The Game Awards nomination also positions Invincible VS to gain visibility from hundreds of millions of people watching across Twitch, YouTube and – for the first time - Disney+.

5th Planet Games today updates shareholders on two recent milestones for Skybound's tournament-caliber tag fighting game Invincible VS: A nomination in The Game Awards 2026, as well as the recent release of the Invincible VS Omni Edition across digital storefronts. Together, these milestones greatly amplify the visibility of the game ahead of the holiday shopping season.

The Game Awards are a global celebration of video games recognizing creative and technical excellence across the industry. Last year's show was viewed by 171 million people, setting a new all-time record for the event. This year, The Game Awards will stream live on Disney + for the first time, alongside its usual platforms like YouTube and Twitch, putting Invincible VS on a massive global stage with its nomination.

Invincible VS is one of five nominees for "Best Fighting Game," honoring the games with the best head-to-head combat design released over the past year. The Game Awards will be streamed live on December 10, when winners across all categories will be named. Voting in each category is open to the public until December 9, including for the Fighting Game category here: Best Fighting | The Game Awards. The Game Awards nomination follows several NYX Game Awards honors for Invincible VS announced earlier this fall.

Skybound also recently released the Invincible VS Omni Edition across digital storefronts, including Steam, bringing the game's Year One content, downloadable post-launch characters, premium skins and deluxe cosmetics together into one package in time for the holidays. With The Game Awards nomination, Invincible VS is also featured on the Steam front page, delivering an immediate and notable boost in both traffic and sales.

Content updates for the game have also historically provided an awareness lift, and with Season 3 planned for release this winter, 5th Planet Games and Skybound anticipate ongoing momentum throughout the remainder of 2026.

Mark Stanger, CEO of 5th Planet Games, commented: “Receiving The Game Awards nomination for Invincible VS is a huge honor in and of itself. The increased awareness it brings to the game through digital storefront features, press articles and the hundreds of millions of views the awards show is anticipated to receive aligns well with the launch of the Omni Edition and upcoming Season 3 content. This is positive news for 5th Planet Games and our shareholders as we near the end of the year and the busy holiday purchasing season.”

Invincible VS is co-financed and co-distributed by 5th Planet Games through key European retailers and comic book shops. Distribution includes within the Nordic region, under 5th Planet Games’ partnership with Nordisk Interactive A/S; Eastern Europe, in partnership with Glomerk SA; and the Benelux region, in association with BIGBEN Interactive Belgium S.A.

Invincible VS* Overview

Invincible VS is the first major video game based on the Invincible universe. It features beloved characters, iconic locations, and devastating combos in a tournament-caliber 3v3 tag-team fighting experience. Released worldwide on April 30, 2026, the game is developed and published by Skybound Entertainment and based on the acclaimed comic series by Robert Kirkman, Cory Walker and Ryan Ottley, which has sold more than 7 million books since its debut in 2003. Skybound’s Invincible animated series, which launched in 2021 on Prime Video, has been the #1 series on the platform at multiple points across its first four seasons. The critically acclaimed series streams in more than 240 countries and territories. Season 5 is currently in production for release February 17, 2027, with an early renewal for Season 6 also confirmed.
